

2015 Consumer Disclosures - Virginia

Occupational Data

An education in cosmetology can prepare you for a wide variety of jobs. The many career paths the beauty industry offers is part of what attracts many people to the field. The following is not intended to provide a complete list of all of those professions. Rather, it is meant to identify the profession that the Bureau of Labor Statistics associates with the program of study that we offer:

Hairdressers, Hairstylists, and Cosmetologists

SOC Code: 39-5012.00

For more information: <http://www.onetonline.org/link/summary/39-5012.00>

Completion Rates

The following were the rates for 2015:

REQUIRED BY NACCAS

50% Completion
70% Licensure
60 % Placement

STAUNTON SCHOOL OF COSMETOLOGY INCORPORATED'S

63.16% Completion in 2015
90.91% Licensure in 2015
100.00% Placement in 2015

Median Student Debt

Many students use financial aid to help pay for school. Part of that financial aid may be in the form of student loans, with a remaining balance that needs to be paid back after leaving school. We calculate the median debt of students graduating from the program. "Median debt" means that half of students graduate with less outstanding in student loans than the number provided here, and half graduate with more.

For students graduating in the 2015 year (from January 1, 2015 – December 31, 2015), the median student debt was $10,681.00

Licensure Rate

Getting a state license to practice cosmetology where you want to work is a requirement for finding employment as a hairstylist or cosmetologist. Staunton School of Cosmetology surveys their graduates to identify the percentage of graduates who became licensed by using the reporting methodology required by our accrediting agency, the National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts & Sciences.

SSOC's licensure rate, as measured under the NACCAS reporting requirements was 100.00% for graduates who sat for the exam in 2015.

Placement Rates

SSOC's placement rate is a measure of the number of graduates who find employment. To measure placement we follow the reporting methodology required by our accrediting agency, NACCAS. Under this method 100.00% students who graduated in 2015 and were eligible for employment.

Campus Security

There were no crimes reported during the year of 2015

2016 Virginia Program Costs & Start Dates

Class Schedule for 2016/2017

August 2
September 6
October 11
November 15
December 27
January 31
March 7
April 11
May 16
June 20

Consumer information for 2016 will be available in December 2017.